This month's Topic

Love, Marriage and Reality

During my last Guild lecture in October, 2014 the Charakarakas of Jyotish were introduced paying special attention to the Atmakarka, representing our soul. In this lecture the Charakarakas will be revisited with the emphasis on the Darakaraka. This karaka tells us whether marriage or long-term relationships are even for us. In addition it lets us know what we can expect from such relationships.

Understanding what the Darakaraka represents and the relationship it forms with an Atmakaraka can be valuable in many ways, because it prepares us.

A handout will be provided with necessary instruction for future use. Bring your sidereal chart if you have it but no previous knowledge of Jyotish (Vedic) Astrology is required to understand this universal topic.

About the Speaker

Phyllis Chubb M.A., Jyotish Visharada, CVA; Jyotish Kovid, CVA

The desire to understand the human mind and soul has been the motivating passion of my life. The constant thirsting has led me down many paths of study, some ancient, some academic and some generally not understood in Western society.

Today my joy is found in teaching, writing, lecturing, and workshops focusing on consciousness and individual awareness. It is my pleasure to share what I have learned with anyone willing to listen, to look within and take charge of their life.

WINTER ASTROLOGY WORKSHOP

SATURDAY FULLDAY WORSHIOP

Hosted by Anne Massey

"Cycles of Consciousness"

Ancient wisdom teachings, from all cultures, have repeatedly emphasized the importance of looking within one's self to find truth and the ability to direct one's consciousness. Acknowledging the importance of consciousness is one thing, the problem is remembering to use it. This workshop is about working with cycles of thought and actions.

The ancients emphasized the importance of consciously directing our thoughts, as thought are directly linked to our actions. The prime motivator contributing to thoughts has been defined as the Moon. Each person experiences the energy received from the Moon in a different way. Learn how you experience lunar energy. Learn what you can do to ensure the minimum number of impulsive actions that can upset your life. Learn to recognize the high times and what to do about the low times.

Recognizing and working with the power of consciousness has been one of the focuses of modern science since Einstein's famous discovery:  $E=MC$ . There are no longer questions about the importance of consciousness when it comes to balancing our lives or achieving our goals.
